Attlee Rule Totters In Cabinet's Revolt

Trade Board Head Said To Join Bevan

Trimming Of Medica Service In Favor Of Rearming Stirs Fight

BULLETIN

LONDON, April 23 (AP)—Aneurin Bevan declared today he quit the Labor cabinet because Britain has been "dragged too far behind the wheels of American diplomacy".

LONDON, April 23 (AP)—The crisis in Great Britain's Socialist government was deepening today.

Informed sources said a second cabinet member has quit in protest against the trimming of free medical services in favor of the rearmament drive.

These sources said the cabinet's youngest member, 35-year-old Harold Wilson, had resigned as president of the Board of Trade.

Such a move would further rock Prime Minister Clement Attlee's unsteady Labor government, already reeling under the impact of fiery Aneurin Bevan's resignation yesterday from the post of labor minister.

There were unconfirmed reports that one or two junior ministers are planning to follow Mr. Bevan and Mr. Wilson.

Labor party circles believe the revolt may result in the government's defeat in the budget debates this week, forcing a general election soon. With Socialist popularity generally conceded to be at a low point now, Winston Churchill's Conservatives gleefully are predicting they soon will be back in power.

Mr. Wilson, failing to show up for today's cabinet meeting at No. 10 Downing St., went to his office in the Board of Trade. His only comment on reports that he had resigned was:

"I have no statement to make."

The British Press Association said Mr. Wilson's resignation will be announced in an official statement later today. The prime minister's office said it couldn't confirm that.

Labor party leaders called a secret emergency meeting tomorrow of all Labor members of parliament.

Lord Beaverbrook's big Daily Express sounded a note of editorial delight. It said Mr. Bevan "has already succeeded in destroying the government". The pro-Conservative express said that where "even Mr. Churchill's oratory had failed to defeat the government, Mr. Bevan on his own has succeeded".

Mr. Bevan quit with a blast at "the scale of military expendi-

Guard To Build Rifle Range

$6,062 Contract Let To Potters Lumber

A contract for the construction of a rifle range for district National Guard units has been awarded to the Potters Lumber Co. on its bid of $6,062, Major John A. Paul, plans and training officer for the 137th Tank Battalion, announced today.

Major Paul said the contract for the construction of the range at the intersection of Route 7 and the Elkton Road in Elkrun Township was awarded by the Ohio Adjutant General.

The U. S. Engineers leased the property, site of the old East Liverpool Rifle Club range, early in 1950 but construction had been held up because of insufficient funds.

Construction is scheduled to start within a week and should be completed within 30 days, Major Paul said.

The range will have a target pit accommodating six target frames, firing points of 100 and 200 yards, a storage building of 128 square feet, toilet facilities and communications between target pit, firing point and range guard stations.

National Guard units from East Liverpool, Steubenville, Youngstown and Warren will utilize the site for firing individual weapons, such as pistols, carbines and rifles.

The East Liverpool Rifle Club also will be permitted to use this range whenever it does not interfere with National Guard firing, Major Paul said.

The Nellis Construction Co. also bid on the job.

Served In Many Civic Posts

'Pat' O'Farrell Dies; Rites To Be Wednesday

Patrick J. O'Farrell, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce for eight years and an active worker in virtually every East Liverpool civic enterprise, died at 3:10 p. m. Sunday in City Hospital.

He suffered a heart attack early Wednesday night. He was 53.

In addition to the Chamber and the several other businessmen's groups that he served as secretary, Mr. O'Farrell was active in most other East Liverpool agencies dedicated to civic work.

Known familiarly as "Pat," he gradually accumulated the host of jobs and responsibilities after becoming secretary of the Chamber March 1, 1943, succeeding Paul L. Courtney, who was called to active duty in the Navy.

Mr. O'Farrell helped organize the Civic Music Association and was its president. He helped draft the association's constitution and by-laws.

He was a member of the Board of Directors of the Red Cross Chapter, having served several three-year terms. He also served on the Red Cross Executive Board, comprised of six directors, and he always handled its business district solicitations in the annual fund drive.

Associates said Mr. O'Farrell also was instrumental in forming the East Liverpool Recreation Council in 1945 as an agency to finance and operate neighborhood playgrounds throughout the city. He was chairman of its Finance Committee in 1946 and a member of the Executive Committee in 1947.

G.O.P. Asks Full Probe On Far East

High Command Seen Ready To Turn Over Most Of Its Papers

WASHINGTON, April 23 (AP)—Senator Taft (R) of Ohio said today Republicans are going to insist upon an investigation of "every aspect" of the Truman-MacArthur controversy over Far Eastern policies.

Mr. Taft made the statement to a reporter amid indications that the military high command will give investigating senators a look at just about anything they want to see during their inquiry. Informed Pentagon sources, however, said a considerable part of the record is likely to be spread out only in closed-door sessions.

Mr. Taft said he will call the Senate Republican policy committee together within the next few days to study "practical ways of getting a complete investigation".

The committee already has endorsed a proposal by Senator Ferguson (R) of Michigan to set up a 24-member committee from the Senate and House to inquire into military and foreign policies.

But there is doubt that the Republicans can win sufficient support to get approval of this resolution. An agreement already has been reached for the Senate armed services and foreign affairs committees to go into the over-all reasons behind President Truman's firing of General Douglas MacArthur as Pacific commander.

Boiled down, the differences are that Mr. Truman wants to fight a limited war in Korea and contends that General MacArthur's proposals to blockade Red China, send planes over Manchuria and use Chinese Nationalist troops might nudge Russia into starting World War III. General MacArthur says the Chinese Communists cannot be defeated by present strategy.

Chairman Russell (D) of Georgia arranged a conference with the armed services committee's professional staff to check any documents it may have assembled.

The Defense Department announced Saturday night that it will make available to congressional committees concerned an analysis of the "basic differences" between General MacArthur's position and that of the joint chiefs of staff.

In his speech to Congress last Thursday, General MacArthur said he understood that his views on how to wage the Korean war — from a military standpoint — had been shared in the past by virtually all military leaders, including the joint chiefs of staff.

NOW IT'S 'WRECK WOOD'. This bus was headed for Westwood — the sign says — when it wrecked on Route 30 Sunday, but the collision changed it to "wrecked wood" as it rammed a tree after being knocked off the highway in a spectacular crash. The bus was en route to a dealer.

2 Drivers Hurt As 2 Busses, 2 Cars Collide

Wellsville Motorist To Receive Hearing On Reckless Driving

Two drivers were injured, and one later charged with reckless driving, in a spectacular two bus-two auto collision Sunday at 7:15 p. m. on Route 30 just two-tenths of a mile outside the city limits.

Harold Wayne Post, 23, of 1791 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, was cited by the State Highway Patrol for reckless operation and is scheduled for a hearing at 1 p. m. today in Municipal Court.

The patrol said his auto sideswiped the two busses and crashed into a parked car.

One bus driver, William Lehrer, 44, of Cardington, is in "fairly good" condition at City Hospital with a possible fracture of the left hip and abrasions. His vehicle was knocked off the highway and over an embankment where it smashed into a tree.

Post was treated at City Hospital for forehead lacerations.

The second bus, was driven by James D. Dampbell, 18, of Mt. Gilead, O. The parked auto is owned by David Butler of East Liverpool R.D. 2.

The patrol reported two other accidents over the week end. Cars driven by William A. Billingsley, 45, of R. D. 2, and Virgil L. Deemer, 18, of 906 Montgomery Ave., sideswiped Sunday at 12:30 a. m. on the Y. & O. Road, near the intersection of Route 30.

Harry D. McFarland of Glenmoor escaped injury Saturday at 6:30 p. m. when his car plunged to win the title and a trip to Steubenville on May 4 for the big district contest, which throws all the champions together for a final spelldown.

The Steubenville winner goes to Washington for the National Spelling Bee.

Five communities—East Liverpool, Wellsville, Midland, Salem and Leetonia—sent their crack spellers here for Saturday's contest.

And they knew their words!

Mrs. Helen Russell Haynes, the pronouncer, used up a large slice of the special word list prepared for the contest before James finally mounted the throne as the champion.

He had to overcome a determined young lady from Salem, Barbara Schebler, before he made it. They battled back and

Elkton Area Marine Suffers Wound

ELKTON, April 23 (Special)—Mrs. Elizabeth Mullen of near here has received word her son, Marine Sergeant Edward Mullen, was wounded April 10 in Korea while fighting with the First Marine Division.

He has been evacuated to a Naval fleet hospital.

Sergeant Mullen, 24, served in Japan during World War II and returned to Lisbon High School on discharge. He was graduated in 1947 and was employed at the Lisbon Tire Shop before his recall to the Marines in August.

He is married to the former Loretta Hough of Lisbon.

Frost Due Tonight With 30 To 35 Low

It's trying real hard to be spring, but there is more frost likely tonight.

The weatherman said the temperature low will range between 30 and 35, but Tuesday will be milder and cloudy.

Another rainy Sunday produced 0.4-inch of precipitation, according to Dam 8.

Lockmaster Joe Green said the showers started about 4:30 a. m. and continued most of the day, ending about 10 p. m.

The lock crew lowered the wickets in anticipation of a rise in the Ohio River. The stream was at 14 feet this morning.

Climax Nears In Atom Tests At Eniwetok

Magnuson Declines To Reveal Whether New Bomb's Tried

HONG KONG, April 23 (AP)—Senator Magnuson (D) of Washington said today the climax of the United States' nuclear fission tests in the mid-Pacific is scheduled "some time within the next week or so".

He declined to say whether a new type atom bomb is being tried, but added: "It has to do with nuclear fission."

Mr. Magnuson said the test will climax a series the Atomic Energy Commission has been conducting "the past 40 days".

The experiments are being conducted at the U.S. atomic proving ground at Eniwetok in the Marshall islands. The A.E.C. has reported tests were scheduled there this spring, but has kept dates and details secret.

Mr. Magnuson said he will leave in three or four days for Kwajalein, some 200 miles from Eniwetok, en route to witness the tests.

He said he also will look into Hong Kong's position as a supply port for Red China.

Smiling, he remarked: "I understand there's quite a bit of that going on."

Third Victim Dies In Guilford Lake Fire

Frank Lawson Jenkins Jr., 23, became the third victim in the fire which destroyed his home near Guilford Lake, April 12, when he died of burns Sunday at 9:45 a. m. in the Salem Central Clinic.

Gregory, his eight-month-old son, died in the blaze and Mrs. Ozbelle Douglas Jenkins, 21, his wife, formerly of East Liverpool, died Wednesday.

Mr. Jenkins was born June 6, 1927, in Youngstown, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jenkins. He lived in Hanoverton Township near Guilford Lake for 13 years.

He leaves his parents of near Guilford Lake; three brothers, Jonathan Jenkins and David Jenkins in the Army, and Felix Jenkins at home; and five sisters, Mrs. Edith Dillard, Catherine Jenkins, Selma Jenkins, Viola Jenkins and Annie Pearl Jenkins, all at home.

Rites will be held Tuesday at 3:30 p. m. in the Maple Funeral Home in Kensington by Rev. Ray Baldwin, pastor of the Kensington Methodist Church. Burial will be in Grove Hill Cemetery at Hanoverton.

Pull Back 12 Miles At Some Points

Enemy Stopped Cold In Other Sectors; Foe's Dead Pile Up

TOKYO, April 23 (AP)—United Nations troops today pulled back as much as 12 miles under the impact of a major Red offensive which raged along 100 miles of the Korean front.

In some sectors, however, the Allies stopped the Reds cold. Where the Allies withdrew it was in orderly fashion.

The Communists, with nearly 700,000 men facing the front, launched their attack at 7:30 Sunday night behind their heaviest artillery barrage of the war. Their assault eased in daylight today but was renewed with fresh vigor tonight.

One intelligence officer called the attack the Reds' "major effort". But another spokesman said it's still too early to tell if it is the Reds' long-expected big spring push.

Close censorship delayed news of the offensive 14½ hours. Then it permitted only a fragmentary picture of the battle. This was it:

The Reds forced a crossing of the Imjin River along a 15-mile front in the west. They were checked by concentrated U.N. air and artillery fire. This crossing is 25 miles northwest to 30 miles north of Seoul, shell-shattered South Korean capital.

United Nations troops pulled back south of the Hantan River, in the adjoining sector to the east. They blew their bridges behind them.

The western front is strewn with bodies of thousands of Chinese, cut down by artillery and air bombardment.

All along the central front Allied troops "rolled with the punch". They fought from new positions tonight over a battlefield garishly lighted by giant search lights, floodlights and flares dropped from planes.

(U.N. withdrawals below the Hantan and on the central front apparently were to straighten the Allied line. It bulged northward at this point. Heaviest concentrations of Red troops were in this area.)

Allied forces stood firm on the east-central front against Red assaults through Sunday night and this morning. Then action quieted.

On the extreme right, the Reds drove wedges into the defense line north of Inje.

'We'll Hold 'Em!' Says Heroic Yank As Reds Open Up

KOREA, April 25 (AP)—"They were blowing their bugles and yelling 'Mansei' when they came at us up the valley."

The Korean "Mansei" is the equivalent of the Japanese "Banzei", a traditional all-purpose battle cry.

"I had 17 bazooka shells with me and I fired every one of them into groups that I could see in the dark," the soldier added. "I must have killed quite a few of them.

"Then our warrant officer was hit and I was giving him a shot of morphine in a slit trench when a Chinese soldier broke through and rushed up a burp gun. I had a bayonet on my carbine and I got him in the body with it and then I shot him.

"By that time I was out of ammo.

"It was rough, but it wasn't too bad. I don't think they are going to get past us this time."

Censors reported that these were the first quotations from front-line soldiers opposing the Reds since the counter offensive began.

Further Curbs Due On Labor, Agriculture

Freeze Considered On Living Cost Raise And Farmers' Parity

WASHINGTON, April 23 (AP)—The administration's drive to stiffen inflation controls is about to switch to labor and agriculture, now that the toughening job on business is being completed.

A new Wage Stabilization Board, established over the week end by President Truman, will have as one of its first tasks the problem of a freeze on further cost-of-living pay increases for workers.

A somewhat similar plan for agriculture—a freeze in further changes in parity—is expected to be included among Mr. Truman's recommendations to Congress for changes in the Defense Production Act. A return to wartime food subsides is another probable proposal.

Any proposal to freeze farmers' parity, Senator Maybank (D) of South Carolina predicted, "doesn't stand a chance". Mr. Maybank, head of the Senate banking committee which handles wage-price control legislation, told a reporter: "Congress not only will reject it, but in my opinion will write a provision into the law making a freeze on parity specifically illegal."

Hope for the lifting of some economic controls by early 1953, barring an all-out war, was expressed meanwhile by Economic Stabilizer Eric Johnston.

Daylight Saving Time Will Start Next Sunday

Don't look now, but you'll have to turn up the clocks one hour next Sunday.

Daylight saving time starts at 2 a. m. Sunday, and lasts through Sept. 30.

East Liverpool makes the time change automatically, as it was approved by an initiative referendum several years ago, after disputes each spring.

Virtually all the tri-state area goes to the fast time, and most Ohio cities do likewise—except Canton.

There, slow time backers won a vote last fall to nullify the city ordinance authorizing the time change and Saturday Judge Paul Weber of Stark County Common Pleas Court upheld the election after it had been challenged.

Notice, Members L. U. 148—A special meeting will be held on Wednesday, April 25th, at 7:30 p. m., Room 3, N. B. O. P. Bldg. All members requested to attend. —Ad.

Moody Named As Michigan's New Senator

Democrat Newsman To Fill Seat Held By Arthur Vandenberg

LANSING, Mich., April 23 (AP)—Blair Moody, Washington correspondent for the Detroit News, was named today by Governor C. Mennen Williams as U.S. senator from Michigan, succeeding the late Arthur H. Vandenberg.

The 49-year-old Moody has been assigned to the News Washington bureau since 1933. During World War II, he served as war correspondent for the News and the North American Newspaper Alliance.

"Senator Moody is a Democrat," Mr. Williams said in announcing the appointment. Mr. Moody's political affiliation was not generally known before, but an associate on the News described him as "a New Dealer from the start"

Mr. Moody's appointment gives the Democrats a four-vote margin in the Senate. Mr. Vandenberg was a Republican.

Mr. Moody is a personal friend of Mr. Williams and was a longtime friend of Mr. Vandenberg. He went to Washington in 1933.

Mr. Moody's interim appointment is until the end of the current term, ending in January, 1953.

$3,000 Fire Damages Apartment At Chester

Flames and water caused an estimated $3,000 to $4,000 damage Sunday at 8:50 p. m. to a frame apartment house at Carolina Ave. and Dunn St., Chester.

Fire Chief Lawrence Cline said the blaze originated in the second-floor apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel George where it gutted one room and damaged another. They were not at home at the time.

The building is owned by Charles Harmon, who resides on the first floor. He said the contents were uninsured and the structure was only partially covered.

Volunteer firemen battled the flames for more than half an hour. Mr. Cline said cause was not determined. The alarm was turned in by Mr. Harmon, who was notified by a passerby.

The Chester department was called on a grass and brush fire Saturday at 3 p. m. on the adjoining Lonnie Simmons and Mrs. Alice McGahan farms in the Washington School district. However, the Newell Volunteer Fire Department, in whose area the blaze occurred, arrived shortly to take over work of extinguishing the blaze which at one time threatened McGahan farm buildings.

Bubble Gum Bandits

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 23—Two 10-year-old boys reported to city police today that they were accosted and strong-armed by three other youngsters who robbed them of a nickel and two pieces of bubble gum.

To Our Readers

An adjustment must be made in the home delivery price of your East Liverpool Review.

Beginning today, April 23, 1951, home delivery will be 30c a week, an increase of less than a penny a day.

Since January of 1947, when the present price was established, everything required to produce The Review has increased in cost: wages, white newsprint, ink, wire services, features, comics and equipment. This circumstance is familiar to all our readers and beyond control of the Review management.

Your Review newspaperboy will share in this increase. This provision already has been made.

'Pat' O'Farrell Claimed At 53

Chamber Secretary's Rites Set Wednesday

tion and the Merchants' Protective Association.

Always active in Community Fund work, Mr. O'Farrell solicited the business district in its annual drives.

Friends said it was not unusual for him to attend three or four night meetings a week, either in connection with Chamber work or the activities of one of the other groups he served. He frequently turned up at City Council meetings to keep in touch with official business.

And he watched Congress and the State Legislature closely, always quick to send along letters to the district's representatives with a word of praise or a rap on the knuckles if he thought East Liverpool's interests were ill-served.

Death intervened before he could finish his latest big job—a fight to persuade the State Bridge Commission to end tolls on the East Liverpool-Chester Bridge as soon as the debt is paid.

He helped lead the campaign that killed a bill that would have continued the Bridge Commission's power indefinitely.

For about 20 years, Mr. O'Farrell was employed in East Liverpool and Steubenville in branch offices of Hazlett, Burt & Watson, New York Stock Exchange brokerage house.

He was manager of the East Liverpool office until it closed in 1938. Then he worked in the Steubenville branch, handling East Liverpool accounts. However, he continued to reside here.

Mr. O'Farrell was born in East Liverpool, a son of William and Brigid O'Keefe O'Farrell. He was graduated from East Liverpool High School in 1915 and was employed for four years by the Steubenville, East Liverpool & Beaver Valley Traction Co. and its associated enterprises.

During World War I, he served in the Army two years, mostly with the Ambulance Corps at Ft. Knox, Ky. After the war, he was employed by the Manufacturers Light & Heat Co. for two years and served as manager of its Wellsville branch. Then he became associated with the brokerage firm.

For a short time before taking the Chamber post, Mr. O'Farrell was employed in the accounting department of the Pittsburgh Crucible Steel Co. at Midland.

Mr. O'Farrell, who lived at 340 West Fifth St., was a member of St. Aloysius Catholic Church.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Dorothy Costello O'Farrell; four sons, Patrick J. O'Farrell Jr., with the Marine Corps at San Diego, William K. O'Farrell, Michael J. O'Farrell and Dennis O'Farrell, and a daughter, Mary Brigid O'Farrell, all at home.

Rites will be held Wednesday at 9 a. m. in the Church. Burial will be in St. Aloysius Cemetery.

Friends may call Tuesday night at the Dawson Funeral Home.

Mrs. Lillie Martin

Mrs. Lillie Dudgeon Martin, 82, formerly of East Liverpool and Chester, died Saturday noon in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wilma Todd, in Alliance, following a two-week illness.

Mrs Martin made her home with her daughter for the past year She was born in Cottageville, W. Va., and resided in the East Liverpool and Chester district 30 years.

She leaves two other daughters, Mrs. Nancy Walter of Lisbon, and Mrs. Estelle Donnell of Scio; four sons, Ben Dudgeon of Newell, Francis Dudgeon of Dennison, Paul Dudgeon of Amanda, Fairfield County, and Rueben C. Dudgeon of Chester; three stepdaughters, Mrs Susie Haught, Mrs. Minnie Bossen and Mrs. Mae Brown of Chester; two step-sons, Harvey Martin of Cleveland, and Leshe Martin of Williamstown, W. Va., and 24 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren.

Private services will be held Tuesday at 2 p m. in the Arner Funeral Chapel in Chester by Miss Geraldine Bentz of the Assembly of God Church. Burial will be in Locust Hill Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral chapel tonight.

William Plotts

William Irwin Plotts, 87, retired blacksmith, died Saturday at 10:15 p. m. in his home, 108 First St, Chester, following a two-week illness. Death was due to a stroke.

Mr. Plotts was born at Florence, Pa., and lived in Chester 53 years. He was employed by the Patterson Foundry & Machine Co. before retiring in 1928. He was a member of the Chester Presbyterian Church.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Ada Evans Plotts; a son, Herbert Plotts of East Liverpool; two daughters, Mrs. J. Albert Rinehart of Fairmont, W. Va., and Miss Wilma Plotts at home, and two grandchildren.

Rites will be held Wednesday at 2 p m. in the Arner Funeral Chapel in Chester by Rev. C. T. Weimer. Burial will be in Grandview Cemetery at Florence

Secretary's Death Saddens Chamber And City Officials

The death Sunday afternoon of Patrick J. O'Farrell saddened business leaders, city officials and the many others who knew him through Chamber of Commerce work and his many civic projects.

Typical comments were:

Robert H. Hays, president of the Chamber: "He was in my mind a very capable secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. I personally will miss him very much."

Ben E. Warner, president of the Retail Merchants Division of the Chamber: "He did a great deal for the community. He was continually looking for things that would help the Chamber do a better job."

Mayor Arnold W. Devon: "He was a very fine man. I knew Pat O'Farrell from the time we were boys together. He leaves as one of his monuments the good he accomplished for East Liverpool through his civic work."

Attorney Francis H. Lang, immediate past president of the Chamber: "East Liverpool has lost one of its most civic-minded citizens. Pat loved this community and its people had the same deep affection for him. His death is a deep personal loss to all who knew him and worked with him."

W. A. Southan, president of council: "Pat O'Farrell lived and worked for a better community. His friendly greeting, his ready wit and his wise counsel will be missed sadly by all who were privileged to know him."

William D. Ogilvie, a member of the Executive Board of the Retail Merchants' Division: "The community has sustained a great loss in the passing of Pat O'Farrell. He has been a tireless worker for the good of our city through his office in the Chamber of Commerce. He has been militant in his efforts to combat any actions that were not in the best interests of East Liverpool. Those who have been associated with him are shocked with the realization that they have lost a good friend and a good citizen."

Herschel C. Atkinson, executive vice-president of the Ohio State Chamber of Commerce: "Word of Mr. O'Farrell's death comes as a great shock. Chamber executives throughout the state will miss him."

Albert E. Redman, director of industrial development for the Ohio Chamber: "We will miss Pat greatly. He was one of the hardest-working secretaries in the state and on state-wide projects he always did his share.

Mr. O'Farrell was active in state-wide affairs of the Chamber and retailers' groups.

The Jury: AMERICA'S CIGARETTE SMOKERS

The Verdict: MORE PEOPLE SMOKE CAMELS THAN ANY OTHER CIGARETTE!

After all the Mildness tests, Camel leads by still more billions!

American smokers have been urged from every side: "Test and compare for mildness. You make the decision." They've made the quick tests, the trick tests and the thorough, sensible 30-day Camel mildness test.

Celebrated songstress MARTHA TILTON says, "You've heard about the 30-day Camel mildness test? Well, I'm a girl who's made the test herself! I enjoyed Camel's grand flavor for 30 days and learned how welcome Camel mildness is to my throat!"

After all these different mildness tests, America's most popular cigarette — by even more billions—is Camel! The latest published figures show that Camel has its biggest lead in 25 years of cigarette history.

Camel's costly tobaccos are properly aged and blended for rich, full flavor and for cool mildness. The flavor is one you won't find in any other cigarette—rich and enjoyable, pack after pack.

And only Camel offers the conclusive proof of mildness of the 30-day test. In this test, hundreds of men and women smoked only Camels for thirty days. Each week their throats were examined by throat specialists who reported not one single case of throat irritation due to smoking Camels!

Decide for yourself — make your own thirty-day Camel mildness test.

WHAT ABOUT THE DOCTORS?

Again a leading independent research organization reports that more doctors smoke Camels than any other cigarette!

As previously, doctors in every branch of medicine, doctors in all parts of the country were asked this question, "What cigarette do you smoke, Doctor?"

As previously, the brand named most was Camel! According to this repeated nationwide survey, more doctors smoke Camels than any other cigarette!

R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.
Winston-Salem, N. C.

MARIO LANZA. Millions of American movie-goers are fast becoming fans of Mario Lanza, husky and handsome, and possessor of one of the finest operatic voices in the country. Like so many millions of smokers, Mario is a Camel fan. "Camels taste great," says Mario, "and, being a singer, I appreciate Camel mildness. Camels agree with my throat."

NOTED THROAT SPECIALISTS REPORT ON 30-DAY TEST OF CAMEL SMOKERS...

Not one single case of throat irritation due to smoking Camels!

Hundreds of men and women smoked only Camels for 30 days and noted throat specialists made weekly examinations of their throats. The doctors reported not one single case of throat irritation due to smoking Camels! Make your own 30-day Camel test — in your "T-Zone" — and see how mild a cigarette can be!

Death In The Afternoon

THE UNTIMELY DEATH of Patrick J. O'Farrell—so sudden that his friends still find it hard to believe—takes away a man of amazing accomplishments for the city's good.

Full appreciation of his worth never was realized during his life. He moved through a staggering load of work with deceptive ease. Only in the summing up is the entire impact of what he did apparent.

It could be said that it was his job—a secretary of the Chamber of Commerce encounters a lot of civic work as a matter of course. But to give one's self to the community in the degree he did requires more than normal interest in a job. It takes genuine devotion to the town, springing from the heart.

It is a sad death—sad for East Liverpool, sad for the family. Some men are taken before their time. "Pat" is one of them.

All Rights Reserved

THERE are now three general groups of opinion about the issue dramatized by President Truman's decision to relieve General MacArthur of his command in the Orient.

One group is claiming General MacArthur is 100 per cent right. One group claims President Truman is right—perhaps not 100 per cent, but more like 85 per cent.

The third group is inclined to believe that, when the pros and cons have been thoroughly aired, it is not going to be necessary to line up with either the MacArthur or the Truman advocates. The solution to the problem of a workable Asiatic policy, they believe, will be a mixture of everything now being brought under review by public opinion.

Members of this third group are relieved of the apparent necessity of jumping at a conclusion they do not fully understand. They can be grateful to General MacArthur for his obvious integrity, and for the positive leadership he represents, and yet be aware that the men on the other side of the issue also are sincerely trying to do the right thing.

This is a republic. Its citizens are free to discuss their problems. Certainly one of the great problems midway in the 20th Century is how to let Asians know that their revolt against colonialism has American support.

It is unlikely that anyone has the definitive answer to that problem now. It will be evolved out of discussion and experience. The main body of public opinion will find its position eventually between the alternatives offered at the outset of the discussion.

Bigger And Funnier

THERE IS no reason to think an 18-man wage stabilization board would work any better than the nine-man board scuttled by the walkout of union labor's representatives. President Truman may as well give up the idea of trying to appease the disgruntled unionists.

The most likely result will be some disgruntled industrialists who will have to be appeased, too. And on top of them he may get a disgruntled public, which also is supposed to be represented on the wage stabilization board.

Union labor is the only minority which can designate spokesmen to represent itself. Industry has no control over anyone who speaks in its behalf, nor does agriculture; or the general public. Therefore, on any board which purports to represent all four points of view, only the union labor viewpoint is subject to control.

Minority-bloc boards are a farce. They always have been a farce. Increasing their size from nine to 18 members only makes them bigger and funnier.

When The Bloom Is Off The Rose

POSSIBLY the most valuable lesson taught by the Kefauver hearings is that bad government thrives on neglect.

One characteristic of bad government which is not related in any way to hoodlumism, but is closely related to neglect, is extravagant spending.

When legislatures convene, everybody talks about economy. Possibilities of saving money are given close attention. There is no neglect.

But as time wears on, the economizers become interested in other things.

The next thing you know, the very people who were talking about saving money are getting ready to spend even more money than was recommended by the president, the governor, or whatever spendthrift it was who proposed a budget.

This always happens. It is happening now. The spenders are beginning to assert themselves as the economizers become interested in other things. The odds against saving any money have lengthened from 10 to 1 to 100 to 1.

Duck hunters should welcome a newly-designed decoy. The American Magazine describes it as a life-size, all-rubber, self-inflating decoy that can be rolled up and stuffed into the pocket.

The combined estimated weight of all air express shipments flown in the United States in 1950 was almost 50,000 tons, equal to the registered tonnage of the French liner Liberte.

Behind The News

By George Sokolsky

Canada Doesn't Think So Much Of Us Now

LESTER B. PEARSON, Canadian secretary for external affairs, has announced a new foreign policy for Canada.

The history of the relations between Canada and the United States has been close, co-operative and automatic. Mr. Pearson now announces that "days of relatively easy and automatic political relations with our neighbor are, I think over".

This news should have been as startling as our defeat in Korea, but it disappeared in the announcement of General Douglas MacArthur's dismissal.

Yet, we have to get back to it because this country cannot afford to lose the friendship of Canada, our most important neighbor. Canada should mean more to the United States than any other country, as the two peoples are economically, politically and defensively dependent upon each other.

THIS IS what Mr. Pearson said:

"The leadership then (after the war) given by the United States rightly won our admiration and the steps that she has taken to implement them since deserve our deep gratitude. The rest of the world naturally, however, took some time to adjust itself to a somewhat unexpected state of affairs. Canada, in my view at least, in not making the adjustment more quickly should surely not be criticized more than, say, Argentina or Egypt, or Sweden. . . .

"You may recall that it was not many years ago that Colonel Lindbergh suggested that Canada should be detached from membership in the British Commonwealth of nations because that international affiliation of ours might get the United States into trouble by involving the larger half of North America in European wars. That seems a long time ago. There are certain people in Canada (I am not of them), who think that the shoe, if not already on the other foot, is now being transferred to the other foot."

This may sound ambiguous and surprising to Americans. What it means is that Canada does not think so much of us.

On April 20, 1941, President Franklin D. Roosevelt and the prime minister of Canada, Mackenzie King, met at Hyde Park to form what was obviously an offensive and defensive alliance. The basic paragraph of this agreement is:

"It was agreed as a general principle that in mobilizing the resources of this continent each country should provide the other with the defense articles which it is best able to produce and, above all, produce quickly, and that production programs should be coordinated to this end."

A joint board of defense had been established in 1940, of which, it may be recalled, Fiorello LaGuardia was a member. On Feb. 12, 1947, the United States and Canada agreed that the joint board of defense should be continued in the postwar period. The official statement said:

"In the interest of efficiency and economy, each government has decided that its national defense establishment shall, to the extent authorized by law, continue to collaborate for peacetime joint security purposes. . . ."

ON JUNE 11, 1947, President Truman, speaking at Ottawa, said:

"The permanent joint board on defense will continue to function. I wish to emphasize, in addition to the word permanent, the other two parts of the title. The board is joint, being composed of representatives of each country. Canada and the United States participate on the basis of equality and the sovereignty of each is carefully respected. This was true during the gravest days of the war and it will continue to be true, in keeping with the nature of all our joint undertakings."

What Mr. Pearson's statement amounts to is that the United States is further isolated. Who are our allies, our friends? Since 1938, patriotic American citizens have been attacked and smeared and abused and called "isolationists", for political advantage.

Under the management of Dean Acheson, we have lost all that. We are becoming bogged down with United Nations compromises. Even Canada goes back on us.

Even Canada announces, through its foreign minister, that it joins with the countries that, having accepted America's friendship and bounty, turn on us in the moment of our danger.

We have indeed become isolationist by the Acheson-Truman diplomacy.

Inside On Labor

By Victor Riesel

SOMETHING NEW may soon be be added to the already bitter life of the human species known as bookies—the picket sign.

There's a new crisis at the country's biggest race tracks and it's quite possible that not a horse will run nor a betting window be open at 35 leading tracks in the next month. They may all be shut tight by a strike of the little-known but powerful Race Track Advisory Council of the A.F.L. Waiters International Union.

For months now the council's dynamic chief, husky, little Bert Ross, who cleaned the Commies out of the New York restaurant industry, has been negotiating with the Harry M. Stevens Co. which runs the race track food concessions and restaurants. And now they're deadlocked over the union's demand for a $1.50-a-week straight raise for all waiters, bus boys, bartenders and captains.

If a strike is pulled, the food and drink servers will be backed by the pari mutuel betting window operators, the ticket takers, guards and other unionized help. Maybe even the horse trainers and the jockeys, who've long wanted an A.F.L. union charter and have been after the American Guild of Variety Artists to take them in.

And if the strike turns tough, it may spread from the tracks in New York, Maryland, West Virginia, Florida, and the derby track in Louisville, Ky., to the big league parks like the Yankee Stadium and Ebbets Field.

The Stevens Company runs the ball park eateries, too.

The order freezing baseball salaries may be only temporary, the Wage Stabilization Board people tell me. If the players come under "professional status", stars like Stan Musial will be able to pocket the $35,000 additional they wangled out of their ball clubs. If not considered professionals, all athletes in baseball, football, basketball and hockey, will be in the deep freeze. But not the prize fighters who go into each bout under a separate contract. That makes the pugs professionals.

TOP LABOR leaders have learned, much to their delight, that the Kefauver committee will ask for enough money to stay in business long enough to go after the narcotics rackets which have long been a desperate, though quiet, headache to them inside some of the biggest plants. Rudy Halley will not continue as counsel.

F.B.I. agents are dragnetting the New York fur market searching for a skin dealer who has imported slave labor furs from Soviet China in violation of the treasury's rules against trade with the Peiping government.

This merchant of menace bought Red Chinese weasels, shipped them to England, had them repacked and labeled Jap mink, with the country of origin stamped "Japan". These he brought into the U.S. The F.B.I. is questioning fur experts and workers in the area.

Movie and Broadway entertainment unions have received word quietly from Washington that the House un-American activities committee will next rip into undercover communism in television and radio.

First hearings on Red-tinged air waves are now scheduled for May 15. Among those who will be asked to tell what they know will be Philip (Pappa on the Goldberg Hour) Loeb, who is considered "father" of the new television union, and Sam Jaffee, one of the early planners of a TV union. Also to be invited will be one of America's top name announcers.

Letter To The Editor

Editor, The Review:

TODAY I am again proud to be an American. I am proud I heard an address by a great man, and a great general, Douglas MacArthur.

The day I heard the news that President Truman had fired MacArthur, I was ashamed. Yes, ashamed to be a part of a nation that had for its leader a president who would so humiliate a great general.

They said when General MacArthur got the news he took it like the magnificent soldier he is. Why should he have to "take" anything? He deserves only the highest praise and deepest gratitude of every one of us for his long record of unselfish service to our country.

Yes, I am glad I heard the address of General MacArthur. Here were the words of a man of knowledge, experience, clear-thinking and, above all, a man with faith and trust in God and a love and concern for his fellow beings.

A few months ago I received a letter from the American Bible Society, in which was a picture of General MacArthur and an urgent request for funds for Bibles for Japan. Here is a man who sees that God has a place in shaping the lives of people, and destinies of nations. Here is the kind of leader our country needs and the world needs.

Surely our country will make use of a man of such knowledge and experience, and not allow him to be like the "old soldier who just fades away".

Vandenberg Knew The Score On Russia

By Mark Sullivan

ONE OF the contributions of the late Senator Arthur Vandenberg to public thought was his early recognition that the differences between the United States and Russia are irreconcilable.

Had we recognized it then, and especially had we remembered it steadily, we should have avoided what we are obliged to confront today.

In July, 1946, Mr. Vandenberg had just returned from a council at Paris, at which the United States, Russia and representatives of other nations had gathered to make a beginning toward peace. Mr. Vandenberg, as one of our representatives, was making an official report and undoubtedly felt obliged to speak without too much abruptness:

"Someone said at Paris that if this recent council had been confined to America, France and Britain, it would have achieved agreement in 10 days. This is simply another way of saying that eastern communism and western democracy are the forces that confront each other. . . . They differ in ideas, ideals and ideologies."

What Mr. Vandenberg said with restraint was said with bluntness and force about the same time by William C. Bullitt. He knew Russia well. He had been our first ambassador to the Communist government of Russia after Mr. Roosevelt gave recognition to it in 1933.

Mr. Bullitt said: "In the eyes of the Soviet government, the Soviet Union is always engaged in warfare, open or concealed, with the non-Communist states of the world. . . . That is why Stalin is unappeasable. . . . That is why, for our own preservation we must face the fact that Stalin will not stop but can only be stopped."

APPARENTLY we are about to have shortly, as one of the train of consequences following President Truman's dismissal of General MacArthur and the accompanying controversy, a congressional investigation of our foreign policy as respects China.

If the investigation is thorough and if it covers a longer period than the Truman administration, it will be obliged to take account of a part played by President Roosevelt.

Throughout the whole of Mr. Roosevelt's conduct of our relations with Communist Russia, up to a few weeks before his death, he followed a course that was counter to the judgment later expressed by Mr. Vandenberg. Mr. Roosevelt went upon the theory that we could have peace with Russia, not merely peace but fraternity.

At the 1943 Teheran conference that included Mr. Roosevelt and Stalin, "Roosevelt felt sure that, to use his own term, Stalin was 'getable'," meaning that Mr. Roosevelt thought Stalin could be charmed into co-operation. (The quotation is from the book of one of Mr. Roosevelt's intimates, Harry Hopkins.) Mr. Roosevelt relied upon co-operation by Communist Russia in the United Nations and in the bringing about of peace. Disproof by events, accompanied by reluctance to accept the disproof, is the major history of the Truman administration as respects relations with Communist Russia."

THE PROPOSED investigation by Congress of the Truman administration's policies about China presumably would cover the broad field specified in a resolution which Senator William F. Knowland of California introduced two years ago. It is sad to reflect that what was called for in April, 1949, is even more called for in April, 1951.

Senator Knowland's statement of purpose was: "To ascertain our present policy and what policies heretofore have been followed . . . and to evaluate and determine the effect of such policies."

From the language of that resolution, likely to be repeated in effect, the object of the investigation is obvious and justified.

The fall of China to Russian communism is one of the great events in world history, taking place in our time and having the effect of disaster on us and on the non-Communist world. The mere fact that it took place during the Truman administration is a kind of accusation against it.

It is natural that our people should wish to know whether, and to what extent, policies of the administration may have contributed, by omission or commission; and to what extent the administration can offer convincing defense or excuse.

It Won't Bear Discussion

By Truman Twill

THERE would be less moaning and groaning if everybody forgot all the weather nonsense.

Too many poets and daydreamers have monkeyed with weathers. It has been fouled up by fake prophets and spurious seers. Weather should be handled by realists. All the humbug should be taken out of it.

Some of the things realists would get down to brass tacks about are as follows:

There is no springtime in the North Temperate Zone. There is only an interval between the severe part of winter and the severe part of summer. The nature of the interval is variable and usually insatisfactory.

This is matched in October and November by another season of uncertainty known as autumn. During this season the weather occassionally is encouraging. But more often than not it is discouraging.

All weather should be divided for practical purposes on this basis—whether it is encouraging or discouraging. There are few days during the year which would not fit readily into one of these two categories.

Encouraging weather may happen any time during the year, but are least likely to happen during January, February, March, April, May, the first half of June, the last half of October, all of November and all of December.

The highest rate of encouraging weather is to be expected during the latter half of June and all of July. August and September. While this does not bar the possibility of encouraging weather during other months, it is not wise to expect it.

To be blunt about the whole matter, the trouble is that people expect encouraging weather and are disappointed when they don't get it.

The whole world should take it for granted each morning that the weather is going to be discouraging, unless there are signs to the contrary.

In either event, there should be no further discussion of the matter—no rehashing of prophecies, no rules of thumb, no quotations from poetry, no complaints and no recriminations. The matter should be closed, like all other subjects which will not bear discussion.

When you buy a colander, make sure that if the holes are small, there are enough of them to allow the liquid to pass through freely. On the other hand don't buy a colander with holes that are too large so that foods like rice will slip through.

Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

It's A Different April

ONE HUNDRED seventy-six years ago this month Paul Revere made his famous midnight ride. We can't help wondering what he would be up against if he tried it today. There's a spur shortage, saddles are hard to get, any horse that can raise a gallop is in the racing entries somewhere and a man around the water front impatiently demonstrating a heavy stride is pretty sure to get into plenty of trouble. He could never get away with a simple "Shush! One if by land, two if by sea!" Somebody would call a cop with the resultant dialogue:

"Whatcha doin' here, buddy?"

"Me? Just watchin'."

"For what?"

"Movements by land or sea."

"Expectin' any?"

"Sort of."

"What kind of movements?"

"I'll take anything. Excuse me, please. I've got to gaze at the landscape far and near, be impetuous, pat my horse's side, etcetera, etcetera."

—:—

"WHAT'S the idea of the horse, bub?"

"You can't have a hurry of hoofs in a village street without a horse, my friend."

"Wise guy, eh? Lissen, I don't like the looks of this. Are you workin' alone?"

"No I have a friend who through alley and street wanders and watches with eager ears. Pardon me a moment."

"What for?"

"I have to pat my horse's side, stamp the earth and tighten the saddle girth. Remember?"

"What're you starin' at?"

"I'm watching with eager search."

"For what?"

"A glimmer. You haven't noticed a glimmer around here tonight, have you? A glimmer and gleam of light?"

"So you're one of them guys that watches for glimmers, eh!"

"I certainly am. And it's most important work. This country would be better off if it had more glimmer searchers."

—:—

"OH YEAH! Where's your glimmer searchers' license?"

"Do I need a license to hunt glimmers?"

"Yeah. And let's see your social security, draft card, old-age pension papers, horse license, jockey license, unemployment relief record and income tax receipts."

How To Solve Money Problems

Spending List Comes Before Budget

By WESLEY DAVIS, Ph. D.
Written For The Associated Press

Do you have enough money? Who has, in these days of inflation! Now comes Dr. Wesley Davis who says you can do something about it. Dr. Davis, a professor of economics and finance at the University of Houston in Texas, is an expert on the subject. In his offices at the university, he often advises people about their money affairs. And he says the advice works! To help you, he has written a series of 12 articles, of which this is the first.

WHETHER love of money is the root of all evil, certainly money causes a varied assortment of headaches, stomach ulcers, nervous breakdowns and broken homes. Let s not let it happen to you. Let's solve your money problems It can be done.

I see others do it all the time Hardly a day goes by without someone calling or dropping into my office at the University of Houston with some problem of money or personal finance. I am just an ordinary professor, and by no means a miracle man, but I can usually find some workable solution to my visitor's problem.

Mr. Davis

Those money problems do get solved. I shall try to pass on the information I would give to you if you dropped into my office and said that, somehow, your money "just doesn't go to all the places it has to go".

First, just because you have a money problem, don't feel inferior to your neighbor. Most people live under constant financial pressure and many live in constant financial crisis.

OFTEN THE person feels he need only earn more money. He should do it if he can and wants to. Even where he can and does earn more, however, the old financial pressures will probably stay right with him. Has earning more ever really solved the problem for you? I doubt it.

What you need is financial planning The planning that eases a current financial squeeze is known as a budget. Frightening word! But the word "budget" need not be frightening to those who know what a budget is, how it ought to be kept and what it can accomplish

Actually everyone budgets his money, unless he is either insane or irresponsible Everyone that is, makes the decision to spend his money for "this" instead of "that". This is budgeting. If you budget your money by simply deciding, before it is spent, how you will spend it, then you are budgeting indeed.

Then if you still can't pay your bills or save what you should—more than likely your answer is to put your budget on principles which have been proved for others. Such budgeting can be pleasant and practical. I see it happen all the time.

BUT BEFORE preparing a budget, keep a record of money you spend. Get a notebook and carry it in your pocket or purse. Jot down every nickle you spend and what you spend it for, day by day. Do this for a month and don't try to plan a budget until you are finished.

After all, if you have done without a workable budget up to now, you can wait until you have kept the record you need to prepare your budget.

Preparing the budget from this record, and using your budget, is the subject I shall discuss with you next.

And then, once the way is set for the budget to relieve you of any immediate financial pressure upon you, we shall want to talk of longer range financial plans.

When you look at the times we live in : : : and then take a look at this new Chrysler Windsor . : : you might almost think we'd had advance information and special-built this car just to fit these times!

Certainly it treats your hard-earned and tight-stretched dollars with a respect that's hard to find in a good many things you buy!

To begin with, the Windsor line is the least-priced of the three lines of cars we build at Chrysler. To buy one gets you all the basic goodness Chrysler engineering means, at the very lowest cost. That's good sense in itself.

In powerplant, your Windsor brings you Chrysler Spitfire : : : one of the truly great engines in the whole bright history of America's motor cars. Time-proved and owner-beloved, it would be hard to put your money on a sounder friend than this to live and travel with you through the months ahead!

As to comfort, Windsor brings you the amazing travel bonus all Chrysler owners get this year . . . the revolutionary new Oriflow shock absorber. With more than twice the shock-absorbing power of any other in the world, this amazing new device keeps wheels steady on the road, and riders steady in their seats.

As you can see, it is no idle claim that this car makes very special sense in these unusual times. But why not get the whole good story at first hand? Why not go see your Chrysler Dealer, very soon?

Bodies Of 120 Dead Brought Ashore In West

OAKLAND, Calif., April 23 (AP)—The bodies of 120 United States servicemen killed in Korean fighting will be taken ashore at the Oakland Army base today.

The bodies arrived yesterday aboard the transport Ocala Victory.

The Defense Department said the remains will be sent to locations designated by next of kin.

CATHOLIC CHAMP. Here's James Reynolds after he won the championship of the parochial Spelling Bee Saturday afternoon against 14 other entries from East Liverpool, Wellsville, Midland, Salem and Leetonia. He'll go to Steubenville on May 4 for finals. With him is his mother, Mrs. James A. Reynolds.

forth through 21 words after all the others had been eliminated.

Barbara finally stumbled on "tension," making it "tention".

James got it right, and then spelled "subsequent" as his extra word to take the title.

Last year, James was in Barbara's role. He finished as runner-up, missing on "guarantee". Richard Journey of Salem spelled it right and won the crown.

James said he didn't have to drill so hard this year; just refresh himself on the long list he had memorized last year. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Reynolds, 506 Palissey St., helped him along, as well as his teacher, Sister Harriet of the St. Aloysius staff.

Barbara, sorely disappointed, said she'll be back next year—"and I'll win it".

She gets one more chance, because she's a seventh grader this year at St. Paul's in Salem. She'll be in the eighth next year. The eighth is the deadline for contestants.

Other St. Aloysius entries were Linda Leigh and Rosemary Tomlinson, both eighth graders.

Immaculate Conception in Wellsville sent Diane Abrams of the eighth grade, Jack Wellington of the sixth, and little Roseann Gerace from the fourth.

Presentation School in Midland had Mary McGeehan from the seventh grade, and Frances Prince and Antline Misorski, both eighth graders.

Salem's entries, besides Barbara, were Roberta Blount from the seventh grade and Gloria Colonanni from the eighth.

St. Patrick's at Leetonia sent Joanne Stumpf, Agnes Oliver and Dolores Skinner, all eighth graders.

The judges were Miss Susan Smith and Bert Dawson from the East Liverpool school system.

Salineville Man Held After Firing At Chief

SALINEVILLE, April 23 (Special) — A Salineville man who allegedly fired two blasts from his double-barrelled shotgun during a struggle with Police Chief James Miller Sunday morning was bound over to the Grand Jury under $2,000 bond today.

Lloyd Gearin, 48, pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault with intent to kill or wound at the hearing before Mayor Karl Lindner.

Chief Miller escaped injury, but his cap was blasted and his glasses broken in the scuffle when he went to the prisoner's East Main St. home Sunday at 2:15 a. m. to investigate a disturbance.

The chief said Gearin pointed the gun at him as he entered the house. The shot went into the ceiling when Mr. Miller knocked the gun into the air. Another shot was fired outside as the chief dragged Gearin towards the cruiser.

Gearin said he had been drinking beer and wine all day Saturday.

High School Tuba Player Rated Superior

One superior rating, two excellent and one very good were won by four East Liverpool High School instrumental soloists in the state contest Saturday at Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware.

William McKinney, tuba soloist, was rated superior; Miss Elsie Davidson, bass violin, and Ted Koenig, trumpet, excellent, and Constantine Dallis, flue, very good.

Young McKinney was accompanied by Dallis, Miss Davidson by Miss Mary Horger, Koenig by Miss Carolyn Smith, and Dallis by Donald Allcorn.

They were accompanied to the contest by John Weitzel, instrumental music director.

Seniors To Present Play At Salineville

The cast:

Widow Burford, Margaret Griffith; eldest daughter, Jean Beighley; the twins, Dorothy Gardner and Donald Carman; friend "Spike," Carl Brown; boy friend, Elmer Mundy; young friends of the family, Patty Maher and Charles Russell; others, Edna Hirst and Michael Keating, and Aunt Sophronia, Helen Hirst.

Man And Wife Killed, 25 Students Shaken Up

CAPON BRIDGE, W. Va., April 23 (AP)—A bus carrying students back to Union Furnace, and a car crashed yesterday, killing a man and his wife.

Frank Stanley Stafford, 47, chief of the health and physical recreation department of the U. S. Office of Education, and his wife were killed. They were in the car.

The 25 high school students were returning from a tour of Washington. None was seriously injured.

Woman's Strangulation Sifted By Licking Jury

NEWARK, O., April 23 (AP)—The Licking county grand jury is studying the case of a young mother who was strangled to death in her home early Saturday.

The victim, Mrs. Mary Adele Loewendick, 23, had been strangled. A short while later Robert Jamison Jr., 25, a close friend and neighbor of the Loewendicks, walked into police headquarters with blood on his face and hands and said:

"I've got a good one for you. I just killed a woman."

Mr. Jamison was accompanied by his wife as he gave himself up. No charges have been filed.

Four Ex-Reds Tell Of Party's Work In Ohio

Senate-House Group Renews Hearings Into Subversives

COLUMBUS, April 23 (AP) — A legislative committee investigating subversives called on four former Communists today to tell about party activities in Ohio

The Senate-House committee asked the quartet to testify at the group's fourth open hearing. The committee is looking for the best way to curb Reds.

All four witnesses are from Toledo Committee Counsel Sidney Isaacs, a former F B I. agent, said they agreed to appear voluntarily and name party members they know.

One of the witnesses is William G. Cummings, former F.B I. undercover agent in the party. His testimony helped convict the 11 top Communists in the New York trial. He will dwell on Ohio Red activities Mr Isaacs said

The other three witnesses have no governmental connections Mr. Isaacs said they have quit the Communist party and are willing to testify to help the legislative inquiry.

He didn't name them. He said they feared advance publicity on their appearance might expose them into threats to prevent testimony

The hearing opened the 17th week of the legislative session

Representatives returned from their week-end recess determined to vote on the two top money bills. They are the two-year budget detailing how money will be spent to run the state and the Mechem sales tax measure to raise a big chunk of the funds.

But some members question whether the House can move fast enough to clear both bills this week. Committees recommended their passage last Wednesday.

The budget emerged from the finance committee with a $3,156,000 increase piled atop Governor Frank J. Lausche's record spending recommendations. Informed of the additions by majority Republicans, the Democratic governor recalled that some eyebrows went up when he termed his $729,114,000 total a "rock-bottom" figure.

Republicans whittled the budget in places, but added enough for schools to boost the sum to $732,000,000 despite the cuts.

The sales tax bill by Senator C. Stanley Mechem(R) of Athens is designed to raise the extra money by plugging loopholes in levies on used car transfers That and other changes may produce an extra $20,000,000 a year, backers estimate. The measure has cleared the Senate.

Pennsylvania's First Lady Dies In Brain Operation

PHILADELPHIA, April 23 (UP)—Mrs. Helene Morgan Fine, 42, wife of Pennsylvania's Governor John S. Fine, died early today in University Hospital following a second major brain operation

The governor was at her bedside when death came at 12:05 a m., 22 hours after the emergency operation was performed by Dr Frank E. Nulsen of the hospital's neuro-surgical staff.

She had been the state's first lady less than 14 weeks. Her husband was inaugurated Jan. 16.

The ailment from which she suffered was attributed originally to a fall here last October during Mr. Fine's election campaign, when she "stumped" the state with him and met thousands of voters.

Mrs. Fine underwent her first brain operation Feb. 15 and was released three weeks later after her apparent recovery. She was readmitted April 7.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by two sons, John S. Jr, 10, and Donald, 7.

Tentative funeral services were set for Wednesday morning from the funeral parlors of Harlow Snowden in Wilkes-Barre.

3 Ohio Guardsmen Die As Plane Hits Mountain

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 23 (AP)—A twin-engine training bomber rammed into a mountainside near here yesterday, killing three Ohio National Guardsmen.

The B-26 bomber was on a routine training flight from the Lockbourne air base, near Columbus, O, to Newcastle, Del.

Lockbourne identified the victims as:

▶First Lieutenant William F. Phelan of Newark, pilot.

▶Staff Sergeant Robert W. Howman of Ashland.

▶Corporal Thomas E. Wilcox of Dayton

Beer, Wine Burn

YOUNGSTOWN, April 23 — Firemen today sought to determine the cause of a fire which destroyed $45,000 worth of beer and wine in the General Distributing warehouse here yesterday. Damage to the building was estimated at $4,000. Firemen rescued two men from the building's second floor, which is used as crews quarters by the Erie Railroad.

Some Koreans call a helicopter an "infuriated palm tree".

Vogeler Case Still Mystery

Wife Waits Further Word On 'Release'

VIENNA, April 23 (AP)—The attractive, Belgian-born wife of American business executive Robert A. Vogeler worriedly awaited more news today of her husband.

She is fearful lest something happen "at the last minute" to prevent his return from the Hungarian prison where he has spent 17 months as a U S. spy

Mr. Vogeler's whereabouts remain a mystery. In Budapest, neither the Hungarian government, which announced Saturday he would be freed, nor the U S. embassy would say when or where he will be released, or whether this already has been done.

Mr. Vogeler was arrested in November, 1949, and was sentenced in February, 1950, to 15 years in prison after conviction on espionage charges by a Communist court in Budapest

The Hungarian foreign ministry announced Saturday he would be freed and "expelled" in return for the granting of certain "just Hungarian claims" The nature of these claims was not revealed, but they conceivably could refer to the return of Hungarian property carried off by the Nazis in 1944 to West Germany.

It is believed, however, that any concessions will not include the crown of St. Stephan, jeweled symbol of the Hungarian monarchy last reported in American hands at Wiesbaden.

In Brussels Mrs. Vogeler's father, Louis Eykens, said his daughter in a telephone conversation from Vienna last night told him "she received notification from the Hungarian authorities that her husband will be released shortly—she said she expects him any day now".

MISS ESTHER WATSON and Donald Emmerling were united in marriage Friday night at 7 o'clock in the parsonage of the Calcutta United Presbyterian. Rev. D. C. McCoy, pastor, officiated for the single-ring rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Watson of Calcutta, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Emmerling of LaCroft.

Navy and pink accessories were won with the bride's gray suit and her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Gilbert, sister and brother-in-law of the bride, were attendants and Mrs. Gilbert was attired in a blue silk print dress and wore a red rosebud corsage.

A reception for the immediate families and a few friends followed at the home of the bride's parents. White bells and streamers formed the setting for the two-tiered cake decorated with bells.

Aides included Mrs. Laura Hickman, Mrs. Lela Emmerling, Mrs. Harry F. Cain, Mrs. Ida Kruse, Mrs. Ethel Richmond and Mrs. Alice Barrett.

Start Your Child Now On The BIG 8 IN WONDER BREAD!

Let The 8 Elements in Wonder Bread Help Your Child Grow Bigger and Stronger 8 Ways!

Note How Amazing Wonder Bread Compares With Meat, Milk, and Fish 8 Ways (as shown at right)

Is your child developing, mentally and physically, at the rate he or she should?

A recent survey of 9,543 children disclosed the shocking fact that 4 out of 5 are not well fed according to the standards of The National Research Council.

These common foods supply ALL the essential food elements your child needs each day: Meat, bread, milk, eggs, fruit, yellow and green-leafed vegetables.

Let your child have the "BIG 8" in Wonder Bread.

Good for Growth and Energy

As shown in the chart, Wonder Bread is very valuable—because it helps your child grow bigger and stronger 8 ways.

Growing children need TWICE the protein per pound of body weight as grownups.

Penny for penny, Wonder Bread gives your child more body-building protein than the average of meat, milk, fish and eggs.

Growing children require energy for work and play.

Wonder Bread is a substantial energy food. More quickly converted into energy than fat. And better than fat for child growth.

Helps Build Stronger, Bigger Bodies 8 Ways

The chart shows the 8 body and brain-building properties of Wonder Bread.

Serve Wonder Bread with meat, fish, eggs, milk, fruit and both yellow and green-leafed vegetables in a balanced diet to supply ALL the food elements your child must have for healthy growth.

8 ounces of Wonder Bread for a growing child cost less than a dime a day. You can afford Wonder Bread for your child.

Doubly Fresh

Children love Wonder Bread. Plain or toasted. Because Wonder Bread is doubly fresh—fresh when you buy it; fresh when you eat it. Because slo-baked—13% longer than many ordinary kinds for lasting freshness.

Get economical Wonder Bread fresh from your grocer today—you'll be glad you did.

World Capitals Believe Ouster Will Aid Unity

See Little Hope For Peace, However, In MacArthur's Firing

By The Associated Press

Statesmen in most of the world's capitals and diplomats at the United Nations generally are agreed that the removal of General Douglas MacArthur strengthens Allied unity in the fight against Communist aggression.

But all seem agreed the dramatic ouster gives little hope for a quick peace in Korea.

These opinions are reflected in reports from Associated Press correspondents at posts in the United Nations, and capitals around the world.

In Tokyo, General MacArthur's former redout, and in Turkey, where top diplomats remember that the general was a close friend of the great Turkish leader, the late Kemal Ataturk, there are differences.

At these two key posts the feeling runs high that the general's removal may cause even greater bitterness against the British — who were viewed as having a hand in President Truman's decision—and may encourage the Chinese Communists to press even harder for a long war of attrition in Korea.

Britain's policymakers, however, feel that General MacArthur's removal will help them sell their own people the idea of a greater effort in Korea.

At Lake Success, N. Y., there is almost unanimous agreement that the MacArthur dismissal was essential to Allied unity, but that it will not have any serious effect one way or the other, on the prospects for Korean peace.

Indian leaders feel the general's public pronouncements as supreme commander raised a constant barrier to possible peace talks with the Chinese Communists and the North Koreans. The Indian press praised General MacArthur unreservedly for his military abilities, but questioned his political wisdom.

Steel Figures Under 1950, Will Top 1949

Appliance Demands Holding Up Well; Materials Big Need

CLEVELAND, April 23 (UP)—In spite of rumors that demands for major appliances have fallen off sharply, a survey by the magazine Steel shows that production and sales in 1951 will exceed the 1949 volume.

Although demand for large television sets is off "substantially, Steel reported manufacturers said that demand is holding up well, but the "frenzied buying" at the outbreak of the Korean war is down. Steel said that 1951 production and sales will be off about 30 per cent from 1950, but will exceed the 1949 level.

The major problem of appliance manufacturers, Steel said, is to obtain necessary materials. Many are forced to use imported and conversion steel, according to the magazine.

Until the new controlled materials plan becomes effective July 1, Steel said, the industry has followed the defense order-rated system of steel allocation. "Actually," the magazine said, "there is no other course to follow, considering the uncertainties attending the impending switch from the currant loose priorities and allocations system."

June defense requirements, Steel said, will show a 200,000-ton increase over May, when 1,200,000 tons were made available for special programs. New directives issued by the national Production Authority will account for much of the increase, the magazine said, in the construction of freight cars, locomotives, barges and ships.

Steel reported the iron and steel and related markets "stable" last week under the government price freeze, although it expects some changes in price schedules shortly.

Proposals are said to call for establishment of individual warehouse schedules, the magazine said, and possibly new mill price schedules. The weighted index on finished steel arithmetical average of $106.32.

Production exceeded the 2,000,000-ton level against last week, when the national ingot rate rose ½ point to 103 per cent of capacity. Production for the week is estimated at 2,059,000 tons, compared to the average output of 1,281,210 tons in 1940, the best prewar steel production year.

Survivors Questioned In Crash Of Tankers

MOBILE, Ala., April 23 (AP)—Survivors of a Gulf of Mexico ship disaster were questioned today as to just how two Standard Oil tankers crashed together in the open sea, killing possibly 39.

One flame-seared tanker, the 10,000-ton Esso Greensboro, is under slow tow as salvage to the port of Galveston, Tex. The other, the 25,600-ton Esso Suez, limped into Mobile Saturday night.

The two collided in dense fog about 200 miles south of Morgan City, La., shortly before dawn last Friday. The Greensboro, carrying a load of fuel, was swept by a blazing inferno of oil. Only five of the 42 men aboard were rescued.

Of the Greensboro crew, 13 bodies were recovered, two others were spotted from the air and 22 others are missing and presumed dead.

The Suez, with a gaping hole in her bow, lost two of her crewmen.

Ceramic Art Show Opens At Youngstown

The 15th National Ceramic Annual opened Sunday in Youngstown, completely filling two rooms at the Butler Art Institute It ends June 17.

The prize-winning pieces, selected from 1,500 entries from 34 states and Hawaii and Canada, comprise a show on an annual tour sponsored jointly by the Syracuse Museum of Fine Arts and the Onondaga Pottery Co.

Ceramic sculpture, pottery and enamels are included.

LOST SUB'S SKIPPER. Captain of the British submarine Affray, Lieutenant John Blackburn was among the 75 lost aboard the craft at the bottom of the English Channel.

200 Expected To Attend Wells High Band Party

About 200 Wells High School Band members and guests are expected at the annual band party Friday night at 7:30 in the Newell School's auditorium, according, to Mrs. Clyde Arnott, president of the sponsoring Newell Band Parents Association.

A program of entertainment will be followed by dancing, crowning of the band queen and refreshments.

Mrs. Burt Kaufman is entertainment chairman and Mrs. Ruth Kiger and Mrs. Marjorie DeBee will have charge of refreshments.

The senior girl selected as queen by band mothers will be crowned by Miss Coleen Eckleberry, 1950 queen.

Aviation Gas Station Will Be Built On Ohio

CINCINNATI, April 23 (UP)—The government will build one of the largest aviation gasoline stations on the inland waters of the United States on the Ohio River near here, U.S. district engineers have disclosed.

The capacity of the station will be in excess of 500,000 barrels—21,000,000 gallons. The cost is estimated at $2,500,000.

The station, to be built on the Ohio side of the river about two miles west of Anderson Ferry, is expected to be a central distributing point for supplies to airfields in the Midwest. The fuel will be brought in from refineries by river barge and railroad and distributed by railroad and truck from the depot.

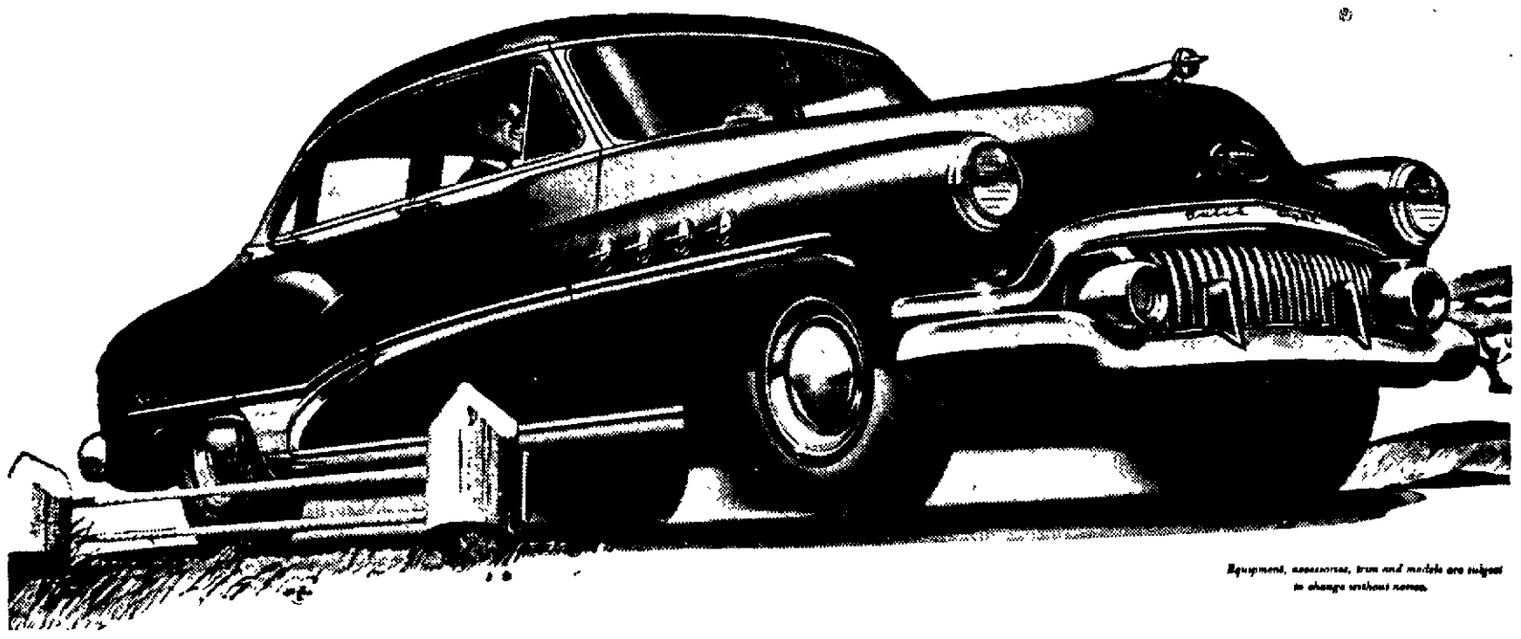
"Smart Buy's Roadmaster"

FIREBALL POWERED



Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

IT started the day the 1951 ROADMASTER made its first appearance — and has been building up ever since.

Folks looked at the fresh new styling, considered the power — the features — the fabrics — the cloud-soft cushions — and the prices — and said, "Here's the smart buy in the fine-car field."

Why don't you come and see for yourself what a sensational buy this proud beauty really is?

It's a honey to handle — a joy to ride in — and just about the handsomest thing on wheels.

It has room, and poise, and a level-going gait that comes from coil springs front and rear.

There's a triumphant thrill in the willing obedience of its Fireball power and the luxurious ease of its Dynaflow Drive, which doesn't cost you a penny extra.

There's a sweeping view fore and aft through broad and uncluttered glass areas, and the new clarity of an instrument panel with high visibility at night.

Even the brakes are new, self-cooling, with a grip that takes hold like steel fingers in a velvet glove.

Here indeed is a car that is fine in bearing, in action, and in the precision of every structural part — a ROADMASTER custom built by Buick. When will you try one as our guest?

Tune in HENRY J. TAYLOR ABC Network, every Monday evening.

Appointments Made For Red Cross Duties

Upper Hancock Unit To Name Directors At Meeting July 20

Various appointments were made, including a nominating committee, at the quarterly meeting of the North Hancock County Red Cross Chapter Friday night at Newell.

Alton C. West of Chester, fund chairman, announced the drive has been extended indefinitely since less than half of the quota has been raised.

He and Harvey Werkheiser of Chester, J Burchfield Cartwright of Newell, and J M Graham of New Cumberland were named an advisory committee to review the entire chapter program

They will make recommendations to the Board of Directors

The nominating committee, including Mrs. Ray Shaw of Pughtown, Mrs. William Murray of New Cumberland, and William A McGown of Newell, was chosen to present a slate of eight nominees to the board at the annual meeting July 20

Any person who contributed a dollar or more in the fund campaign is eligible to recommend nominations by July 15 by sending a post card to chapter headquarters or phoning Newell 3116

The board voted unanimously to participate in the national defense blood program of the Pittsburgh Chapter Chairman will be announced later

The appointment of Mrs Viva Hune of Chester as chairman of volunteer services was confirmed. Her chairmen include:

Miss Olive Allison of Chester, staff aide service, Mrs. William F Witherowe of Chester, social welfare aide service; Mrs Walter Pepin of Chester R. D 1, nurses' aide service; Mrs Norma Virtue of New Cumberland, canteen service, and Mrs William A McGown of Newell, motor service.

Mrs. Hune was named chairman of the 70th anniversary celebration May 24. Rev. W D. Lewis of Wheeling, former pastor of the Newell Presbyterian Church, will be guest speaker

Mrs. Ruth Sprouse, executive secretary, reporting on service to members of the armed forces and veterans and families, said expenditures have doubled during the past half year.

For the quarter ending March 31, expenses totaled $1,208 40, compared with $508 13 spent during the Sept. 30 quarter

The National Red Cross reimbursed the chapter for $201 62 expenses incurred during the snowstorm and floods in November and December Chapter funds amounting to $127 56 were expended for the relief of one family which lost its home by fire.

Other reports listed three first aid classes held An instructors' course was held in January, a standard course for Civil Defense personnel in March, and a standard course for school bus drivers in November.

Two Junior Red Cross members, to be chosen by the faculty of Newell Wells High School, will be sent to Camp Caesar at Webster Springs, W. Va, in July.

The chapter will be co-host with the East Liverpool chapter at the May meeting of the three-state council at East Liverpool.

ture", he said the Socialists should pay for any rearming by a new soak-the-rich program of taxes and leave alone the free spectacles and false teeth he instituted when he was minister of health.

The new budget presented by the Labor government two weeks ago would require Britons to pay half the costs of their spectacles and false dentures Chancellor of the Exchequer Hugh Gaitskell said the Socialized health program had to be cut in order to divert funds for rearmament.

Mr Bevan previously had voiced his opposition to the cuts in free medicine. But his reference to the military expenditures was a new note which Labor party moderates interpreted as an open appeal for support from the party left wing which he leads.

With Labor's majority in the House of Commons now at a slim five votes, Mr. Bevan would need only a handful of supporters to bring the government down if he carried his opposition to the extreme

Mr Attlee made no attempt to hide his annoyance in his quick letter accepting the resignation of the fiery, 53-year-old former Welsh coal miner. The letters started "Dear Clem" and "Dear Nye", but the prime minister acidly observed·

"I note that you have extended the area of disagreement with your colleagues a long way beyond the specific matter to which, as I understood, you have taken objection"

Mr. Attlee, still hospitalized for treatment of duodenal ulcers, is in no condition now to fight an election campaign even if this were a politically strategic time for one And the cold, wet winter which saw a shortage of coal, a shortage of meat and a continuing shortage of houses makes the time far from strategic for the British Socialists.

Mr Bevan is expected to elaborate on his sudden bolt from the cabinet in a speech to Commons this afternoon

As president of the Board of Trade, Mr. Wilson has been one of Britain s most important government figures.

Meet the Man with the Big Job on his Hands

Yes, he's your Sohio serviceman.

In this man's hands and his head and his heart rests the welfare of much of Ohio's private transportation system . . . your car and, perhaps, the one next door, and a large part of the other two million like it.

Normally, the job he does in caring for your car is important to you because he can save you hundreds of dollars in the course of its life.

Today, that job is more important to you—and to all of us—because it may determine whether you have private transportation in the future . . . whether we as a community can operate in the event of crisis or extended emergency.

Now, as always, Sohio is backing these men with everything. The best lubricants and other products we can produce or obtain . . . the latest of service information straight from the men who make cars . . . every kind of training and encouragement . . . every needed tool and piece of equipment we can lay our hands on.

But all of this is of no avail unless you say "yes" when this man asks to take care of your car. The finest motor oil in the world won't do its job unless it's in your crankcase. The best grease gun is useless to protect your car unless you will take time enough to get it on the lift.

So . . . for your own sake . . . next time he asks, say "Yes"! It's a big job and an important job . . . and he wants to do it for you!

You can count on SOHIO . . . first in making your car last!

This spring, these hands will give new life and improved safety to $2,000,000,000 worth of Ohio cars!

Now Everybody's Doing It

I SUPPOSE it was inevitable that the Kefauver hearings, conceivably the most successful television program of all time, would attract imitators. And it has. Both Lights Out, the N.B.C.-TV show, and Suspense, the C.B.S.-TV show, have done direct imitations of the televised crime hearings, have employed the services of a lot of good actors and cameramen.

No actor yet, though, has come anywhere near the polished performances given by Mr. Halley, Senators Kefauver and Tobey and Anastasia and the rest of that colorful cast.

Possibly the worst indignity to the original cast was committed by Lights Out, where Dane Clark, generally a very competent actor, was made to play a highly emotional Rudolph Halley (though not under that name) who repeatedly lost his temper. Since the real Mr. Halley is unemotional as a dead cod and about as hard to fluster, this performance was pretty jarring.

Even more jarring was the plot. The senators — and N.B.C. dug up an actor who looked and talked remarkably like Senator Kefauver—were trying to pin a murder on an exceedingly truculent witness (who would have been arrested for contempt if he'd behaved that way in front of the real committee).

Suddenly the supposed corpse showed up in the courtroom, led the Kefauver and Halley characters to a deserted building and then proceeded to float through a locked door and disappear. Breaking down the door, the investigators found a trunk containing the man's long-dead body.

IF THAT denouement startles you, then you haven't been hanging around Lights Out very much. On that show dead folk are constantly popping up out of the sea or out of their tombs to confront their murderers, to lead them to their corpses and generally to raise cain with the living.

You never quite know who is or who isn't deceased on Lights Out, but I can give you a couple of hints, if you care to hear them. The dead, almost without exception, have a wise, all-knowing air about them. When threatened with death or injury, a small inscrutable smile flickers across their lips. They feel sorry for us poor dopes, the living.

This may well have been what unsettled the neo-Halley. The real Halley, heaven knows, had a lot of things to contend with—the complete self-possession of Virginia Hill, the enormous reticence of Frank Costello, the loss of memory of virtually everybody—but at least all those persons were subject to the rules of Senate hearings—subpena, contempt proceedings and the rest of it. Even the matchless urbanity of Rudolph Halley might have been slightly ruffled by a witness who disappeared through locked doors.

The other Kefauver imitation on Suspense was a much better show in all regards, an eye-filling production employing half a hundred Chinese actors, and a pretty darned good story.

Like the Lights Out show, it started with the hearings. There was a Halley character who was a good deal closer to the original than the Lights Out man and also a Senator Tobey who not only looked like the New Hampshire moralist but also exploded with indignation in almost exactly the same way. The Kefauver impersonator, however, was a good deal handsomer in a smooth, actorish way than the gentleman from Tennessee.

THE SENATOR didn't stay in the courthouse, interrogating witnesses, very long. Soon he, too, was prowling through the darkness and also courting a good deal of danger in a Chinatown underworld The street scenes were breath-taking for a live television show.

There was a bit of knife play which severed one witness from this mortal coil and effectively closed his lips. At least on Suspense it closed his lips. This man may show up next week on Lights Out.

The big switch at the end came when it turned out that it wasn't as all suspected, the crooked cop—he turned out to be quite an honest cop — but a crooked reporter who was the big wheel they were all looking for. Any time a reporter is made to commit the crime instead of solving it on TV, that, brother, is a man biting a dog.

Huk Slayers Of G.I.'s Sought

5 American Fliers, Woman Ambushed

MANILA, April 23 (AP)—Philippines army troops swept the northern fringe of the misty Candaba swamp today without finding a trace of the Communist Hukbalahap band which killed five American airmen and a woman in an ambush Saturday night.

A second woman was wounded seriously. Both women were wives of two of the victims.

Army sources said they believe the Huks still are in the area.

An unestimated number of Huks attacked an Army barracks near the scene of the slaying last night. The attackers were driven off. One Filipino soldier was wounded.

The U.S. 13th Air Force said names of the slain Americans will be released Wednesday, after relatives are notified. A board was appointed to investigate the slayings.

The five Americans were enlisted men from the Clark Air Force base.

They were killed near Santa Rosa, 60 miles north of Manila, on their way back from a village fiesta near Cabanatuan.

Defense Secretary Ramon Magsaysay said they were "mowed down in cold blood". He flew to the scene and ordered strong army patrols to track down the Huks.

U.S. Ambassador Myron M. Cowen is expected to lodge an official protest with the Philippines government today.

Mr. Magsaysay said the dead woman was Mrs. Rosalina Naguiat Montgomery, wife of Sergeant John Montgomery. The wounded woman was Mrs. Jovita Jose Chulosky, wife of Staff Sergeant Peter Chulosky of Dallas, Tex.

The Manila Times and the Philippines News Service said the other slain soldiers were Sergeant Joseph G. Fenneli or Fannali, Army serial No. 6802324; William Clain or Claim, serial No. 170336598, and a man named Embry.

Doctor Will Appeal Kidnaping Sentence

ALBUQUERQUE, April 23 (AP) — Dr. Nancy Campbell, prominent Sante Fe woman doctor, has been sentenced to 10 to 15 years in prison for kidnaping a 9-year-old-girl.

The 43-year-old physician and surgeon was released on $40,000 bond after her attorney, A. L. Zinn, said the case will be appealed to the state Supreme Court.

The district court jury of 12 business and tradesmen took just 55 minutes to convict Dr. Campbell Saturday after a six-day trial.

The jury rejected the defense plea that Dr. Campbell was insane last Nov. 10 when she kidnapped Linda Stamm.

She was arrested as she reached for a package she thought contained $20,000 ransom at the gateway to the Stamm estate near Sante Fe Nov. 11.

Dr. Campbell won Phi Kappa honors at the University of Texas and was one of the first woman graduates of the Yale Medical School.

Take Care Of Your Home

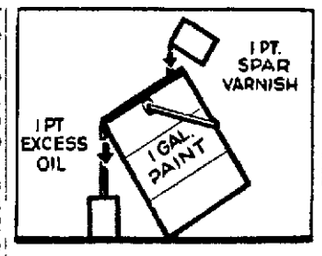
Keep House Well Aired To Stop Mildew

THE APPROACH of warmer days means here comes the mildew season.

Since mildew can raise hob with wood, fabrics, leather, paper, paintwork—almost everything in your home—it's a good idea to fight it and keep it down

The prevention of mildew is a lot easier than its cure. The first step is to eliminate all causes of dampness and to keep your house well aired.

Don't let damp or wet clothing lie around It's prudent to dry all soiled clothing before putting it in a laundry hamper. Keep dishcloths, washcloths, towels and wet shower curtains spread out to dry.



The housewife who sprinkles her laundry and then puts off the ironing soon learns about mildew. She has a tough job to remove the stains—if the fabric hasn't actually rotted.

Soiled fabrics mildew more rapidly than clean articles. So it's unwise to store clothing that has not been laundered or dry cleaned. Also molds feed on starch and sizing. Starched shirts often mildew in damp unventilated drawers. It's safer to sun and air stored clothing periodically to be sure it remains dry.

MILDEW SEEMS to spread like blazes. Although all mold spots should be removed as soon as they are discovered, if you brush them off indoors the spores will scatter in the air and replant themselves elsewhere. Do the brushing outdoors or use a vacuum cleaner

Mildew on paint will often take the appearance of a sooty or rusty deposit. You'll notice it more often on dark paint than on white. This is because the surface film is softer on dark paints, such as black, brown or red They contain more oil. White paint with its zinc and lead and less oil dries harder and becomes more resistant to mildew.

REMOVAL of mildew stains has been studied extensively by the General Electric Consumers Institute at Bridgeport, Conn It was found that fresh mildew stains on washable fabrics could be eliminated by washing promptly with soap and water, rinsing and drying in the sun. Any remaining stain was eliminated by sponging with a solution of 1 tablespoon of sodium perborate to a pint of lukewarm water. This was left to stand for a minute or two and then rinsed. However, since this is a bleach it is well to test it first on an unimportant part of the cloth.

The G.E. experimenters also found it effective to boil musty dishcloths and washcloths with 2 teaspoons of baking soda added to each quart of water.

A chlorine bleach worked on old mildew stains on undyed cotton, linen and rayon, followed by a dip in a weak vinegar solution to stop the chlorine action. But this can never be done to silk or wool.

Outlook Good On Housing As Air Clears Up

Target Of 850,000 New Units Expected To Be Passed Now

WASHINGTON, April 23 (INS) —The home building outlook is better now than at any time since the declaration of national emergency by President Truman last Fall

For the first time in months, government and industry officials appear to have a clear idea on the housing pattern for 1951, and considerable improvement is noted by all concerned.

Last winter, industry said the government's goal of 850,000 new apartments and houses would not be met. Instead, they estimated real estate credit controls would cut output to about 600,000 units.

Today, responsible officials declare the goal not only will be reached, but it will be exceeded. As many as 950,000 new units may be started before Jan. 1.

Moreover, it appears that housing shortages will be mild for the most part. And effective steps will be taken to alleviate serious housing problems around military camps and atomic energy plants.

So far the government has approved construction of four billion dollars' worth of new defense plants. But officials say adequate labor and housing is available to handle the industrial expansion program.

Inventories of building materials are good Later this year, there will be shortages of metal products, cement and lumber. Yet they will not be serious enough to stop housing production completely.

One government official says: "Housing will have to continue at relatively high rates because of its importance to the defense program. However, this does not mean that the type of housing will not be regulated or financing terms not restricted."

In this connection, the prospects are the government will reduce construction of so-called "luxury" houses by limiting each house and apartment to a maximum one-and-one-half bath.

Why Is TERMITE Damage Increasing?

Until recent years, no scientific effort had been made to check their onslaught. Because of the decrease in the size of the forests, their native habitat, termites were forced to find food elsewhere. Where forests or orchards once stood, homes have been built that are not termite proof This makes ideal conditions Generally these homes have a central heating system, making them warm the entire year Consequently, instead of working only in the warm weather and retiring below the frost line when cold weather came, termites worked throughout the year.

Indians Lead Loop After Winning Two

Beat Browns, 10-3 And 4-3

CLEVELAND, April 23 (AP)—Cleveland's new manager, Al Lopez, wanted his Indians to get off to a good start—and that they've done.

By beating the St. Louis Browns, 10-3 and 4-3, yesterday, the Tribe rose to the top of the American League standings with five victories and one loss.

Idle today, Cleveland will send Bob Feller against the Chicago White Sox here tomorrow. Then come three more off-days.

Good pitching is responsible for the Indian's good start. Yesterday Early Wynn and Mike Garcia went full games, and in three of Cleveland's four previous victories the hurlers lasted the distance.

When the first game got under way—10 minutes early because of threatening skies—a crowd of 13,932 was on hand When the nightcap ended under lights six hours and 33 minutes later, about half of the fans already had departed. Rain held up the first game in the third inning for an hour and 19 minutes.

In copping the opener, 10-3, Wynn got the benefit of the Tribe's best offensive of the season. Burly Early chipped in with his share of the 10 hits—a pair of doubles. The victory was his second, and he yielded only seven hits and two walks.

Garcia, the Tribe's lone holdout this spring, flashed a fine fast ball in the nightcap. He struck out nine and was nicked for eight hits in his first start.

Given a first-inning lead of three runs, Garcia was pressed to hold it. After a shaky start in which the first five indians got on base, Lou Sleater, a rookie southpaw, setteled down to hold the Tribe to one run and five hits in the following eight innings.

Sleater gave three walks in that first frame, and his third pass forced in a run. Luke Easter singled home the first run of the rally and scored the third marker when Merrill Combs forced Larry Doby at second, with the bases full.

Garcia's single after Bob Kennedy's double in the third provided Cleveland its fourth and winning run.

In the opener St. Louis took a 1-0 lead in the first inning on Berardino's double and Wood's single. Doubles by Hegan and Wynn and a single by Roberta Avila pushed the Indians in front 2-1 in the third, before the rain.

Southpaw Stubby Overmire walked two batters to fill the bases, and Bill Kennedy came in to hurl for the Browns when the game was interrupted. After the rain Doby fanned and Bob Kennedy fouled to leave the three runners stranded

Wood pounded a home run over the center field fence in the fourth to tie the score at 2-2, but the Tribe came back with three runs in its half of the inning to chase Kennedy off the hill. Wynn and Rosen each doubled in a run in this rally.

The game turned into a lopsided Cleveland conquest in the fifth when Irv Medlinger, a rookie southpaw, was clubbed for three more runs. The final Tribe tallies came on Larry Doby's two-run homer off Duane Pillette in the eighth.

Sports Mirror

Today a year ago—The Detroit Red Wings won the Stanley Cup hockey playoffs by defeating the New York Rangers, 4-3, in overtime, in the seventh and deciding game of the series.

Five years ago — Pitcher Ed Head of the Brooklyn Dodgers hurled a 5-0 no-hit game against the Boston Braves, allowing only four men to reach base.

Ten years ago—Riley Smith, former Alabama grid star, was named head football coach at Washington and Lee.

Twenty years ago—Outfielder Babe Ruth of the New York Yankees suffered a severe charley horse in his left thigh while running the bases against the Boston Red Sox. It will keep him out of action for about two weeks.

Named Cage Coaches

MURRAY, Ky., April 23 (AP)—Phil Manders, coach of the Wisconsin state championship high school basketball team at Wisconsin Rapids, and Warren Scholler, coach at Hamilton Public High School, Hamilton, O, have been named to coach the North All-Stars in the annual North-South basketball classic. The game will be played here June 16.

Cleveland Barons Beat Hornets, 3-1; Win Hockey Title

CLEVELAND, April 23 (AP)—Champions over the regular season schedule and winners in the play offs, Cleveland's Barons held the American Hockey League's Calder Cup today and each Baron had a $1,113 cash reward.

For winning their fifth championship since the league was formed, Cleveland got $22,267 of a players' pool of $65,491.

Pittsburgh's Hornets, whom the Baron beat 3-1 in the seventh game of the final play off series, got a $16,700 share. The Hornets, who finished third in regular season play, got 25½ per cent of the players' pool and the Barons 34 per cent. The pool represented half of the net of the minimum number of games needed to decide play off series. There were 17 such games attended by approximately 100,000 fans.

Buffalo, Springfield, Indianapolis and Hershey—all play off participants—also share in the pool.

The biggest crowd of the season here, 9,,689, saw the Barons take an early lead Saturday night on Phil Samis' tally at 1 06 of the first period and add two more in the second on shots by Les Douglas and Ray Ceresino. Andy Barbe got Pittsburgh's lone goal two minutes before the last period ended.

'Biggest Fixer' Held In Widening Cage Probe

NEW YORK, April 23 (AP)—Authorities hinted strongly of new arrests in the widening basketball betting probe today while holding in $50,000 bail a former Long Island University star described as the biggest fixer of all.

The 18th player or former player to be arrested in connection with the scandal is Jack Goldsmith, 31, a great set-shot star of the 1946 and 1947 LIU teams. He was arrested Saturday and charged with bribery.

"He is responsible for the corruption of more basketball players than any other single person," Assistant District Attorney Vincent A. G. O'Connor said.

O'Connor made his statement to Magistrate William E. Prendergast yesterday in asking for an exceptionally high $100,000 bail.

"We have real concern for the safety of this man if he were allowed to go free on bail," O'Connor said. "The people associated with him know what he can give us."

O'Connor further described Goldsmith as an "essential key" in the probe "because of his underworld associations through the years".

The former LIU player is specifically accused of offering four LIU performers $3,500 to fix the game between LIU and Duquesne University at Madison Square Garden Jan. 1, 1949.

O'Connor said Goldsmith offered $1,000 each to Edward Gard, Nathan Miller and Louis Lipman and $500 to Richard Fuertado to arrange the point spread of that particular game. Duquesne won, 64-55.

Goldsmith had been hiding in various locations in the city ever since the scandal broke about two months ago, O'Connor said. The ex-star was described as a reticent, defiant witness.

"He is the sum of all that is wrong with the basketball picture in recent years," O'Connor added. "In Goldsmith we see all phases of corruption exemplified."

He said Goldsmith worked with several groups of fixers over a period of years but acted independently of Salvatore T. Sollazzo, the party-throwing jeweler who has been indicted on charges of bribing college players.

Potters Face Big Red Nine There Today

Ten games are scheduled for East Liverpool High and district scholastic baseball teams this week, starting this afternoon with the Potters meeting the Big Red at Steubenville and Midland entertaining New Brighton Both games are slated for 4.

The Potters will be seeking their second victory in three starts, while the Leopards will be searching for their first triumph in four WPIAL Section 7 outings.

Tuesday the Potters will trek to Toronto, while at Clark Field in Newell the Wells High nine will take on the Chester Panthers. Newell will strive for its second victory against a tie in three starts and the Panthers will be after their second in three starts.

Liverpool has a date at Mingo Junction either Wednesday or Thursday, and then on Friday will open the home season in a return game against Steubenville Catholic Central, a team they whipped last week at Steubenville, 8-2.

Friday afternoon also will find Monaca at Midland, Weirton at Chester and Newell at New Cumberland.

Manley Beats Patton To Win North-South Golf

PINEHURST, N. C., April 23 (AP)—The new glamour boy of amateur golf is Hobart Manley, a young Georgian who looks like a movie idol and who hits a ball farther than Sam Snead.

Manley, 24-year-old Savannah, (Georgia), shotmaker, came of age—golf wise—yesterday when he won the North and South Amateur Tournament, his first big conquest.

In an uphill struggle he defeated Billy Joe Patton of Morgantown N. C., one up, in the 36-hole title match.

Patton led from the fourth hole to the 33rd. But Manley, exploding for threes on the last five holes, evened the match on No. 34, went ahead on the short 35th, and rammed home a 30-footer on the final hole for a birdie three to halve the hole and preserve his 1-up margin.

Win Pro Cage Title

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 23 (AP)—Members of the Rochester Royals distributed $7,500 among themselves today as a reward for winning the National Basketball Association championship. The New York Knickerbockers won $5,000 for their role in carrying the new champs to the seventh and final game of the title series. The Royals beat the Knicks in the deciding game here Saturday night, 79-75.

440 Relay Team Wins In W. Va. Meet

Paced by their crack quarter-mile relay team that landed the only first place for the Potters, East Liverpool High's trackmen came in eighth in the 23rd Intelligencer Relays Saturday at the Island Stadium in Wheeling.

The Potters aggregated 21 points, scoring in four events. East Palestine nosed out the Blue and White for seventh place with 24 in a star-studded field of 17 squads that saw Pittsburgh Central Catholic walk off with the championship with 58½ points.

The Pittsburghers dethroned Bellaire which finished well back with 42 markers in fourth place. Carrick High, also of Pittsburgh, was runner-up with 54½ counters, and St. Clairsville was a surprising third with 47½. Wheeling landed in fifth place with 27 and Linsly of Wheeling was sixth with 26.

Racing in Liverpool's winning 440-yard quarter were Bob Sullivan, Pete Woolley, Jack Mountford and Jim Laughlin. Their time was 46.9 seconds.

Sullivan also ran second in the 100 to Liles of Cadiz who won in 10.6. Laughlin placed third in the broad jump which was won by Johnson of Carrick with a leap of 20 feet, 9 inches, and the Potters' half-mile relay finished fourth, the event being won by Pittsburgh Catholic in 1:37.8.

Tripp was East Palestine's star with a first in the high jump, a second in the 120-yard high hurdles and fourth in the broad jump.

Other scorers for the Bulldogs were Harrick, a second in the 440; Edwards, a fifth in the 440; Herrington, third in the half-mile; Holloway, fourth in the mile, and Taylor and Allard, a tie for fourth in the pole vault.

The Bulldogs took home the track trophy with 14 points.

Individual honors for the meet went to Capt. Charley Topp of Linsly who won the high hurdles, the quarter-mile and anchored the Cadets' winning shuttle hurdle relay.

Finishing behind Liverpool in team scoring were Martins Ferry 13½, Cadiz 12, Wellsburg 10, Toronto 7, Shadyside 6, Mingo 5, Triadelphia 2, Steubenville 2, and Benwood Union 1.

Chicago Meister Braus Lead In ABC All-Events

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 23 (AP)—The Meister Braus of Chicago smashed its way into the American Bowling Congress' team all-events lead Sunday with some top-notch kegling.

Upsetting pins for a record 45-game total of 9,278, the Meister Braus also shoved an old rival—the Detroit E & Bs—right out of the picture.

Ed Kawolics, whose pin-pushing markmanship gave him first place in the individual all-events division, led the Meister Braus to their 45-game 9,278 total. This is 202 pins higher than the total posted by the E & B's Friday and Saturday. It is 24 pins better than the former ABC team all-events record of 9,254 posted by the Herman Undertakers of St. Louis in 1941.

After rolling a 3,027 total in the five-man event Saturday night to take over first place by eight pins, the five members of the Chicago quint tallied 3,048 pins in the doubles and ended with 3,203 in the singles.

Dressen Out-Foxes His Former Boss

Lippy Boils As Giants Bow

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

You couldn't blame Leo (The Lip) Durocher for talking to himself today. The wonder is that the loquacious leader of the New York Giants has any speech left at all.

To say that Durocher came off second best in the much ballyhooed battle of wits with Charlie Dressen, his former first lieutenant at Brooklyn, is putting it mildly. The new Dodger pilot outmaneuvered and outgeneraled Leo at every turn over the week end as the Brooks vanquished their hated rivals three straight at the Polo Grounds.

The final crushing blow—and the most humiliating—came yesterday when the Dodgers snatched a thrilling victory from apparent certain defeat to whip the Giants 4-3, in 10 innings.

The triumph left the Dodgers in first place in the National League, a half-game in front of Pittsburgh and the Chicago Cubs. The Pirates defeated the Reds in Cincinnati, 7-5, and the Cubs tripped the Cards, 10-5, in St. Louis. Philadelphia's Phils salvaged the last of a three game series with Boston, winning an uphill 6-5 victory.

Cleveland forged into the American League lead, sweeping a home double-header from the St. Louis Browns, 10-3 and 4-3. The Indians now have won five of six to hold a half-game edge over Washington and the Chicago White Sox. Rain washed out the scheduled game between the Senators and New York Yankees but the White Sox edged the Detroit Tigers, 3-2, in Chicago.

Boston's Red Sox pulled up to a .500 rating, winning two games from the Philadelphia Athletics, 6-5 and 7-4, at Fenway Park. They now have won three and lost as many.

Yesterday's Giant defeat was more galling than the setbacks of Friday and Saturday. Sal Maglie, the veteran righthander, needed only one more strike to record his first victory of the season. He had a 3-2 count on Gil Hodges with two out, nobody on base in the ninth and the Giants ahead, 3-2.

The third strike never came. Instead, Hodges walked, moved to second on Roy Campanella's single and scored the tying run on another one-bagger by Pee Wee Reese. Carl Furillo's homer, his first hit in 19 times at bat, decided the issue in the top of the 10th.

Here is how Dressen stole the show from Durocher in the department most revered by Leo, the sensational, the extravagant, the spectacular, the unpredictable, the theatrical:

In the seventh inning on Friday, with Brooklyn leading 7-3, Durocher sent Artie Wilson, a lefthanded hitter, to pinch hit. Dressen indicated disdain for the Lip's selection by shifting three of his infielders to the left side of second base, and pulling in his right fielder, Furillo, to play second. That left right field wide open, unprotected. The 30,000 witnesses could hardly believe it.

All Wilson had to do was tap the ball to right field and it probably would have been a home run. Right field in the Polo Grounds roams 450 feet to the bullpen. But Wilson the southpaw, who is a notorious opposite field hitter, tapped meekly back to the box and was an easy out. Wilson had played under Dressen in Oakland for two years. Durocher boiled.

On Saturday, Dressen sent up two pinch hitters against Larry Jansen in the seventh and both walked, forcing in the tying run. After the Dodgers routed Jansen in the eighth, Dressen stole a page out of Durocher's book by ordering a squeeze bunt that brought in another Brooklyn run.

Dressen pulled the unexpected again yesterday, using Don Newcombe in relief. The staff's ace, who whipped the Giants in a nine-inning job Friday, hurled three hitless and runless innings to notch his second triumph in three days. Durocher ordered a batter purposely passed in the ninth hoping to get a pinch hitter for Newcombe. But Dressen crossed up his old sidekick again, allowing big Don to bat thus keeping him in the game.

Pin Champs Crowned As City Tourney Ends

One East Palestine kegler crashed into second place in both the singles and all-events as the annual City Handicap Bowling Tournament ended six weeks of action Saturday night at the Del Ray alleys.

Sam Ross rolled 683 to nail runner-up laurels in the singles and his 1,900 was good enough to take second place in the all-events. He posted a 575 in the five-man event and added a 642 in doubles.

Otherwise, the standings remained untouched

Fredland Jewelers walked off with the team title with a 3,154 posted the first night of the tourney. Green Tavern's 3,012 stood up for second place and City Bar's 2,947 was third.

Frank Musuraca captured the singles crown with a 691, and as Ross wedged into second place. Neal Cochran dropped to third with 671.

Musuraca was the only "double" winner. He also nailed the coveted all-events title with a 1,902 total, and Byron Eells emerged in third place with 1,866.

The Weber-Weir duo came off with the doubles championship with a 1,236 Jay Springer and George Heddleston were second with 1,233 and Mike Gerace and Morilli Vitalune third with 1,229.

Awards will be made at the annual banquet of the American and National Leagues, Homer Seevers, tournament director, announced.

East Tech Tracksters Win Mansfield Relays

MANSFIELD, O., April 23 (AP) — Cleveland East Tech High School reigned as champions of the 20th Mansfield Relays today but it is the Springfield Wildcats who are regarded as likely favorites in this week's Ohio Wesleyan Relays.

Springfield placed only fifth in Saturday's relay carnival but since the Delaware event this week is scored on a team basis, Springfield is rated a good chance to cop the team laurels.

The Wildcats have three men who each can jump better than 20 feet in the broad jump. In addition they are strong in the shotput and pole vault. The Wesleyan Relays allow each school four competitors in track events and three in field events.

Cleveland's East Tech won the Mansfield Relays with 37 points.

Don Kelly from Class "B" Poland Seminary turned in the top feat of the day, easily winning over Ron Truex of Lima Central, the state cross country champ, in the mile run. Kelly's time was 4:39.5.

Here's how the teams finished behind Cleveland East Tech and Mansfield:

Columbus Central 19½, Cleveland John Adams 19, Springfield 18 5/6, Cincinnati Central Vocational 17, Cleveland West 12½, Mt. Lebanon, Pa. 11, Washington, Pa. 9⅓, Grand Rapids, Mich. 8, Cleveland East 8, Cleveland Central 8, Cleveland John Marshall 8, Lima Central 7, Swarthmore, Pa. 7, Columbus East 6½, Poland Seminary 6½, Dayton Wilbur Wright 6, Brecksville 6, Ashland 6, Shaker Heights 5 5/6, Cleveland West Tech 5, Akron East 5, Chillicothe 5, Cleveland Heights 4½, Cleveland Cathedral Latin 3, Cleveland Rhodes 3, Cincinnati Hughes 2½, Marion Harding 2, Lakewood 1½, Worthington 1, and Oberlin 1.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2 IN MEMORIAM

CAIN—BELL. In loving memory of our mother, who died 3 years ago April 24.

Gracious, gentle mother,
Always sweet and kind,
You only saw the good in folks,
And to their faults were blind.
God's taken you to Heaven,
Where all is joy and mirth,
But the place you left so empty,
No one can fill on earth.
THE CHILDREN.

3 CARD OF THANKS

I WISH to thank the sponsors and anyone connected with the Wellsville electric show and also Miss Kathie Geischer who drew my ticket for the General Electric Range Saturday evening.
Mrs. A. F. Buchmann
944 Main St.
Wellsville, Ohio

GEORGE WILDBLOOD
WE WISH to thank all of our friends, neighbors, pallbearers and those who provided cars, for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy and for their beautiful floral offerings at the loss of our dearly beloved husband and father. We especially thank Rev. C. L. Rodda, the Emmanuel Quartet and Mrs. Ruby Rutter.
MRS. BESSIE WILDBLOOD AND FAMILY

Yours for the price of TV alone! Admiral 17" television, triple-play phonograph and superpowered radio. A never-to-be-repeated value offered solely to celebrate Admiral's 2,000,000th TV Jubilee. The day when this great event would occur was foreseen months ago. Right then the decision was made to commemorate it with the most sensational offer in television history. That offer is before you now! And what a value! A superbly beautiful, big 17" Admiral TV console with the amazing Admiral Dyna-Ray picture tube that brings you the clearest, sharpest, brightest pictures in television...engineered to outperform any set, anywhere, any time...plus a thrilling Admiral Radio-Phonograph that plays all records automatically. Both for the price of the TV alone. Place the radio-phonograph atop the TV console and you have a combination. Or, if you prefer, arrange the two units separately. Either way you have the greatest value ever offered in complete home entertainment. But to take advantage of this offer you will have to act quickly. So, see your Admiral dealer without delay.
